

Free Indeed Biography

Free Indeed is an Acappella Contemporary Christian Music Ministry that started in 1987 and through the years has built an effective tool for God. They started singing for entertainment, with God's timing and their own spiritual growth, Free Indeed has become a ministry that provides powerful messages which strive to bring people closer to God through music and other related ministries. Over forty people work together using their talents to help others focus on their personal relationship with God, their relationship with their family on earth and their eternal family. Music resources include: 4 Contemporary Albums, 15 Praise and Worship Albums, 1 Traditional Album, 1 Christmas Album, Several instructional and inspirational DVDs , Songbooks On CD, Presentation Creator and Custom CDs.

Free Indeed has always been a 100% volunteer ministry, no one in the ministry gets a paycheck and all of them have full-time jobs they also work at. In recent years Free Indeed has also started a production company offering Sound, Lighting, Staging and Video production for organizations and events. Another Acappella group has also formed under the Free Indeed Ministries umbrella, they are called, "One Spirit" (www.1spirit.org). Other ministries include short-run CD and DVD Duplication and an interpretive signing ministries called, "God's Hands".
